

The Danger Of Special Revelation, Denying The Trinity

by Keith Malcomson

This sermon addresses the denial of the Trinity within some church assemblies, particularly the rejection of the triunity of Father, Son, and Holy Ghost as heresy. It delves into the belief that one must be rebaptized in Jesus' name only to be truly saved and the insistence on speaking in tongues for rebirth, leading to a divisive movement within churches. The influence of these teachings, disguised as special revelations, on leaders within the assemblies of God is highlighted, emphasizing the need for discernment and adherence to biblical truths.

Scripture: Matthew 28:19, Acts 2:38, 1 Corinthians 12:10, 1 John 4:1, Ephesians 4:14

Topics: "Trinity", "Discernment in Faith"

Transcript

God, they denied the Trinity or the triunity of Father, Son, Holy Ghost, and said it's error, it's heresy. This began to come into assemblies of God in 1915. They rejected the Trinity.

Some went further and said to be born again, or if you're saved, to be saved, you need to be rebaptized in Jesus name only. And you need to speak in tongues or you're not reborn again. And this began to sweep church after church.

And these teachings under the guise of special revelation or deeper truths began to affect leaders amongst the assemblies of God. And you know, it went so far that all of the assemblies of God churches in Louisiana got caught up in this movement like Barnabas. Good men, good church.
