

The Love Of Christians Growing Cold

by Keith Malcomson

This sermon delves into the warning about the increase of iniquity leading to the cooling of love among Christians, specifically focusing on the agape love. The speaker highlights the relevance of this message to believers within the church, emphasizing the potential for even devoted Christians to struggle with diminishing love. An example provided is Peter's denial of Jesus during a time of trial and darkness, serving as a reminder of the vulnerability of love in challenging circumstances.

Scripture: Matthew 24:12, 1 John 4:7, John 13:34, Luke 22:54

Topics: "Agape Love", "Vulnerability in Faith"

Description

This sermon delves into the warning about the increase of iniquity leading to the cooling of love among Christians, specifically focusing on the agape love. The speaker highlights the relevance of this message to believers within the church, emphasizing the potential for even devoted Christians to struggle with diminishing love. An example provided is Peter's denial of Jesus during a time of trial and darkness, serving as a reminder of the vulnerability of love in challenging circumstances.

Transcript

Because iniquity shall abound, the love, he's talking about Christians born again in the church, not talking about the world, not talking about sinners, he's talking about the love of many is going to grow cold. The agape love of many and I've dealt with this many times over the years. Do we have an example of this? Yes, Peter in the hour of temptation and darkness, remembering tonight.

Video: <https://sermonindex2.b-cdn.net/ZOhlyM3yBDI.mp4>

Source: <https://sermonindex.net/speakers/keith-malcomson/the-love-of-christians-growing-cold/>

Grow in Your Walk with Christ

Listen and read messages that will stir your heart for Christ and point you to deeper repentance and devotion.

- 50,000+ Sermons from speakers past and present
- 3,900+ Classic Christian Books freely readable online
- 1,200+ Bible Translations and Commentaries
- Over 450k forum posts — Join our vibrant online Christian forum

www.sermonindex.net