Description

In this sermon, the preacher focuses on the story of Solomon in the book of 2 Chronicles. Solomon had an audience with God and asked for wisdom to govern the people. The preacher emphasizes that God has a plan for each person's life and that we should seek His will. He highlights the importance of recognizing our own insufficiency and relying on God's efficiency. The sermon encourages listeners to trust in God's plan and seek His blessings by aligning their lives with His will.
