

Prayer

by K.P. Yohannan

God really answers prayer, and prayer is a sure way to see God do miracles on our behalf.

Scripture: Matthew 7:7, John 16:24, Philippians 4:6, James 5:16

Topics: "The Power of Prayer", "Joy in Answered Prayer"

Description

K.P. Yohannan emphasizes the power and necessity of prayer, sharing testimonies of miraculous answers to prayer that have transformed lives and circumstances. He highlights that prayer is essential for the forward progress of God's work and encourages believers to persist in their requests, assuring them that God is always ready to respond. Yohannan cites biblical figures like Gideon, Moses, and Jesus, who prayed and witnessed God's miraculous interventions. He reminds us that prayer not only brings about change but also fills our hearts with joy as we experience God's answers. Ultimately, he urges everyone to ask in faith, as God desires to fulfill our requests and bring us joy.

Transcript

Week after week in GFA's headquarters, we read letters from people who write to us saying, "Would you please pray for this?" We get prayer requests from all over, and we take these requests seriously and pray. Later we hear the praise reports: "Nobody can explain how it happened, but God answered prayer . . . The money that we needed came in . . . We found the perfect individual to do the work . . . The Lord healed him." All kinds of unbelievable things happen when people pray.

Pray because major events must transpire in our lifetime. God wants things to happen. The work's forward progress depends on our praying. It really does. Let this sink in. God really answers prayer. As you ask Him, He answers specifically and miraculously. I have seen it so many times.

Prayer is a sure way to see God do miracles on our behalf. Gideon, Moses, Daniel, Elijah and Paul all prayed, and things happened. Jesus prayed before He raised Lazarus from the dead and before He fed the five thousand. The Bible is filled with people praying and things happening in answer to those prayers. Right now God is waiting to answer the prayers from your lips. Sometimes the answer may take longer in coming, but keep on asking. Keep on seeking. Keep on knocking. God truly answers prayer.

Pray so that your joy may be full. In John 16:24 Jesus said, "Until now you have asked nothing in My name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be full."

Do you want to be full of joy? Then let God show you some answers to prayer. All of us can testify to the joy of answered prayer.
