

'a.w. Tozer on Judgment'

by Leonard Ravenhill

The sermon emphasizes that in the judgment, we will not be held accountable for what we've done, but for why we did it.

Duration: 0:45

Scripture: 1 Samuel 16:7, Proverbs 16:2, Matthew 6:1-4, 1 Corinthians 4:5, Hebrews 4:12

Topics: "Heart Examination", "Divine Judgment"

Description

This sermon delves into the importance of examining our motives behind our actions, emphasizing that we will be judged not just for what we have done but for the reasons and motives behind our deeds. It highlights the concern of missed opportunities and the significance of understanding the true intentions and heart behind our actions.

Transcript

Today when I was talking with Dr. Toz, as we used to talk together so often, he said to me one day, you know Len, I'm not really too worried about what I've done. I'm not too worried about the judgment even on my Christian life, which I'll have, I know, but he says, he said, it's the things I could have done that worry me, the things that I missed. We're not going to be judged just because of what we've done, we've got to be judged for why we did it.

Not for the action, for the motive, what motive they think you're giving. So you'd have a plaque with your name on, or you'd be at the top of the list for giving money, why, why, why, what's the motive behind it?
