

'Praying Payson of Portland'

by Leonard Ravenhill

The sermon emphasizes the importance of developing a consistent and dedicated prayer life, like that of Praying Patient, to build relationships with God and others.

Duration: 0:59

Scripture: Ephesians 6:18, Philippians 4:6, Colossians 4:2, 1 Thessalonians 5:17, James 5:16

Topics: "Persistent Prayer", "Intercession"

Description

This sermon reflects on the powerful legacy of a praying patient in Portland who dedicated himself to fervent prayer, leaving physical marks on his knees as a testament to his commitment. It emphasizes the importance of persistent prayer and intercession, highlighting the impact of a life devoted to seeking God.

Transcript

Supposing I could say to Gabriel this morning, Gabriel, hand this book down. Well, let's preview eternity. Here we are, millions of people, all the prayer bodies.

America has produced some of the greatest praying patient of Portland, at a floor harder than that, and at the sight of his dead, when he knows he used to pray, and pray, and pray. And when they washed his body for burial, he had great big hooves on his knees like camels, like history says that James, in the Bible, had camel's knees, at least tradition says that. Well, it's a living fact that patient had them.

And when they were washing him, somebody said, but what, what abnormal knees, they're calloused, they're heavy with calluses. Yeah, because he used to pray at the side of his bed, with energy. And in that hard floor, he wore two grooves like that, about six or seven inches long, where he used to pray and make intercession.

Praying patient of Portland.

Video: <https://sermonindex2.b-cdn.net/0sEJu12yu5U.mp4>

Source: <https://sermonindex.net/speakers/leonard-ravenhill/praying-payson-of-portland/>

Grow in Your Walk with Christ

Listen and read messages that will stir your heart for Christ and point you to deeper repentance and devotion.

- 50,000+ Sermons from speakers past and present
- 3,900+ Classic Christian Books freely readable online
- 1,200+ Bible Translations and Commentaries
- Over 450k forum posts — Join our vibrant online Christian forum

www.sermonindex.net