

Quote - No Room at the Cross

by Leonard Ravenhill

The sermon emphasizes the importance of surrendering to God's will and allowing Him to change us at the cross.

Duration: 0:20

Scripture: Matthew 16:24, Luke 9:23, John 12:24, Romans 12:1, Galatians 2:20

Topics: "Ravenhill Quote", "Sacrifice", "Transformation"

Description

Leonard Ravenhill emphasizes that merely approaching the cross is insufficient for true transformation; instead, one must fully embrace the cross by getting on it. He challenges the notion of seeking comfort at the cross without the willingness to sacrifice and change. The message calls for a deeper commitment to the Christian faith, urging believers to fully engage with the cross to experience genuine change in their lives.

Transcript

It doesn't have to whimper at the end, there's room at the cross for you. Forget it, there's no room at the cross, get on the cross! You're trying to crouch at the cross and think it will do something and so you're not changed. We're not changed by going to the cross, we're changed when we get on the cross.
