Description

Leonard Ravenhill emphasizes the distinctions between prayer, praise, and worship, noting that prayer often focuses on our needs, praise centers on our blessings, and true worship is a deep preoccupation with God Himself. He encourages believers to move beyond mere requests and gratitude to a profound engagement with the divine presence, highlighting the importance of prioritizing God in our spiritual lives.

Transcript

Prayer, speaking generally, is preoccupation with our needs. Praise is preoccupation with our blessings. Worship is preoccupation with God himself.
