

Quote - Ravenhill on Entertainment

by Leonard Ravenhill

Entertainment can become a substitute for true joy and happiness, leading people away from the Holy Spirit.

Duration: 0:18

Scripture: Nehemiah 8:10, Psalm 16:11, John 15:11, Romans 14:17, Galatians 5:22-23

Topics: "Ravenhill Quote", "Joy in the Holy Spirit", "The Dangers of Entertainment"

Description

Leonard Ravenhill emphasizes that while he enjoys music and fun, he believes that entertainment serves as a substitute for true joy, which can only be found in the Holy Spirit. He argues that the more one experiences joy through the Holy Ghost, the less one will rely on television or other forms of entertainment. Ravenhill's message challenges listeners to seek genuine joy in their spiritual lives rather than temporary distractions.

Transcript

I like music, I like fun as much as anybody. We've just about laughed ourselves... Let me tell you what I believe. I believe that entertainment is the devil's substitute for joy.

The more joy you'll have in the Holy Ghost, the less you'll need TV or anything else. I'm convinced of that.
