

'Stamp Eternity on My Eye Balls'

by Leonard Ravenhill

Praying for a deeper understanding of eternity and its impact on our lives can transform us into a very different tribe of people, with a changed perspective on the world and a renewed sense of purpose and direction.

Duration: 0:24

Scripture: Psalm 90:12, Matthew 25:46, 2 Corinthians 4:18, Hebrews 9:27, 2 Peter 3:11

Topics: "Eternal Judgment", "Spiritual Transformation"

Description

This sermon emphasizes the profound impact that a true understanding of eternity and judgment can have on our lives, suggesting that if we truly grasped these concepts, we would be transformed as God's people. The speaker reflects on the power of having eternity and judgment imprinted on our hearts, highlighting the potential for a radical shift in perspective and behavior.

Transcript

Oh God, stamp eternity on my eyeballs. I don't know anybody else that ever prayed it, maybe we said it. But you know, if God should stamp eternity or even judgment on our eyeballs or, if you like, on the fleshy table of our hearts, I'm quite convinced we'd be a very, very different tribe of people, God's people in the world today.
