

'We Are in Grave Danger, when...'

by Leonard Ravenhill

We are in grave danger when we let our accomplishments become the ground of our confidence, leading to a reliance on human achievements rather than God.

Duration: 0:17

Scripture: Psalm 20:7, Proverbs 3:5-6, Jeremiah 9:23-24, Philippians 3:3

Topics: "Faith And Trust", "Christian Humility"

Description

This sermon emphasizes the danger of placing our confidence in our own accomplishments rather than in Jesus. It warns against the folly of relying on personal achievements, highlighting the need to keep Jesus at the center of our confidence and trust, regardless of our experiences or years of service.

Transcript

We're in grave danger when we let our accomplishments become the ground of our confidence. If you feel stronger in God, if I feel stronger in God tonight because I've been preaching 60 years, I'm a fool. I've pushed Jesus on one side, my confidence is in the...
