

'Wood, Hay, and Stubble'

by Leonard Ravenhill

---

True value and worth in ministry lie in the unseen, hidden things that please God, rather than external appearances and recognition.

Duration: 0:14

Scripture: 1 Corinthians 3:12

Topics: "True Ministry", "Spiritual Foundation"

Description

This sermon emphasizes the contrast between the visible, superficial aspects of public ministry that may be like wood, hay, and stubble - catching attention but lacking true value, and the hidden, foundational work that is like silver, gold, and precious stones - unseen but enduring. It warns about the potential for public ministry to be consumed like ashes if not built on a solid, genuine foundation.

Transcript

Wood, hay and stubble are above the ground, they catch the eye. Silver and gold and precious stones are below the ground, nobody sees them. There's a lot of public ministry in that day that's gonna go down in ashes, my brother.
