

Letting Christ Live Through Me

by Major Ian Thomas

This sermon emphasizes the act of surrendering to God in every step and situation, recognizing His sufficiency in our inadequacy. It encourages a posture of gratitude and availability for God to work through us, acknowledging that He has given Himself to us. The essence of faith is expressed through thankfulness in all circumstances.

Scripture: Philippians 4:6, 2 Corinthians 12:9, Ephesians 3:20, Colossians 3:17

Topics: "Surrender to God", "Gratitude in Faith"

Transcript

All I needed to do for every step I took and for every situation to which that step took me Bound myself out bow him in Recognize that all that he was I had couldn't have more he'd never enjoyed less Expose the situation in my inadequacy to his overwhelming sufficiency and say thank you Lord Jesus You're in business if you need hands here They are if you need lips to speak here, they are mine to think I'm just available for you to handle this situation I don't ask you to help me hang. I want to thank you But when you gave yourself for me, you did so to give yourself to me And so now I take for what you are in me as once I took what you did for me In other words in all its sublime simplicity to my mind The true expression of a faith that lets God do it is to say thank you in everything now this
