

Caused by God

by Mary Wilder Tileston

---

When we give ourselves to God without reserve, His love will fill our hearts and transform our lives, leading us to do things for His sake and bring us joy and consolation.

Scripture: Psalm 119:105

Topics: "Faith And Trust", "Surrender To God"

Description

Mary Wilder Tileston preaches about the blessings that come from fully dedicating our work to God, emphasizing the importance of trusting Him completely and walking in His light. She encourages surrendering all doubts and fears to God, allowing His love to fill our hearts and transform our lives. By giving ourselves to God without reservation, we can find peace, consolation, and recompense in even the smallest actions of our daily lives, knowing that He will guide us through death into immortal life.

Transcript

That the Lord thy God may bless thee in all the work of thine hand which thou doest.

DEUTERONOMY 14:29

FIRM against every doubt of Thee

For all my future way,--

To walk in heaven's eternal light

Throughout the changing day.

Ah! such a day as Thou shalt own

When suns have ceased to shine!

A day of burdens borne by Thee,

And work that all was Thine.

ANNA L. WARING

LET us give ourselves to God without any reserve, and let us fear nothing. He will love us, and we shall love Him. His love, increasing every day, will take the place of everything else to us. He will fill our whole hearts; He will deprive us only of those things that make us unhappy. He will cause us to do in general, what we have been doing already, but which we have done in an unsatisfactory manner; whereas, hereafter, we shall do them well, because they will be done for His sake. Even the smallest actions of a simple and common life will be turned to consolation and recompense. We shall meet the approach of death in peace; it will be changed for us into the beginning of the immortal life.
