

Christ Is All

by Mary Wilder Tileston

Christ is present in all His redeemed, working to free them from the law of sin and death.

Scripture: John 3:17, Romans 5:8, Romans 8:2, 1 Corinthians 1:30, Colossians 3:11

Topics: "Christ Presence", "Redemption Through Faith"

Description

Mary Wilder Tileston preaches about the all-encompassing presence of Christ in the lives of believers, emphasizing that Christ is wisdom, righteousness, sanctification, and redemption for His people. St. Patrick's prayer beautifully illustrates the omnipresence of Christ, surrounding and indwelling every aspect of our lives. John Pulsford further expounds on how Christ is the essence of life for His redeemed, extending His love and salvation even to those who do not yet believe in Him, always seeking to save and transform hearts.

Who is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification and redemption.

1 CORINTHIANS 1:30

CHRIST with me, Christ before me, Christ behind me, Christ within me, Christ beneath me, Christ above me, Christ at my right hand, Christ at my left.

Christ in the heart of every man who thinks of me,

Christ in the mouth of every man who speaks to me,

Christ in every eye that sees me,

Christ in every ear that hears me.

ST. PATRICK

CHRIST is in all His redeemed, as the soul of their soul, the life of their life. He is the pitying heart and the helping hand of God with every needy, praying spirit in the world. He is the sweet light of the knowledge of God that breaks in upon every penitent heart. He is not only with those who believe in Him and love Him, but also with those who neither believe in Him nor love Him, that He may be to them also Jesus their Saviour. The Christ of God is in thy heart, waiting and aiming to get the consent of thy will, that He may save thee. Wherever man is, there also is Christ, endeavoring to free him from the law of sin and death, by becoming Himself the law of the spirit of his life.
