

He Knows More

by Mary Wilder Tileston

---

The sermon emphasizes trusting in God's wisdom and goodness, even when His plans differ from our expectations.

Scripture: John 14:1

Topics: "Trusting God", "Divine Providence"

Description

Mary Wilder Tileston preaches about trusting in God's wisdom, goodness, and power, even when His plans may seem unclear or not in alignment with our own desires. She emphasizes the importance of casting all our cares upon God, knowing that He cares for us and sees further than we do. Tileston highlights the significance of being in harmony with God's providence, meeting life's challenges with humility, belief, and gratitude, as a way to be in union with Him.

Transcript

He knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with Him.

DANIEL 2:22

TAKE it on trust a little while;

Soon shalt thou read the mystery right

In the full sunshine of His smile.

JOHN KEBLE

GOD is too wise not to know all about us, and what is really best for us to be, and to have. And He is too good, not to desire our highest good; and too powerful, desiring, not to effect it. If, then, what He has appointed for us does not seem to us the best, or even to be good, our true course is to remember that He sees further than we do, and that we shall understand Him in time, when His plans have unfolded themselves; meanwhile casting all our care upon Him, since He careth for us.

HENRY PARRY LIDDON

To be out of harmony with the things, acts, and events, which God in His providence has seen fit to array around us--that is to say, not to meet them in a humble, believing, and thankful spirit--is to turn from God.

And, on the other hand, to see in them the developments of God's presence, and of the divine will, and to accept that will, is to turn in the opposite direction, and to be in union with Him.
