Description

Mary Wilder Tileston preaches about the transformative power of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus, freeing believers from the bondage of sin and death. She emphasizes the importance of yielding to God's loving skill and grace, even when the process is veiled and mysterious to us. Tileston highlights the need for a sound mind and a joyous heart in serving God, cautioning against being hindered by petty scruples. She encourages believers to be patient in their spiritual growth, diligently clearing away stumbling blocks and trusting in God's unseen work for gradual progress.

Transcript

The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

ROMANS 8:2

NOT yet thou knowest what I do

Within thine own weak breast,

To mould thee to My image true,

And fit thee for My rest.

But yield thee to My loving skill;

The veiled work of grace,

From day to day progressing still,

It is not thine to trace.

FRANCES R. HAVERGAL

GOD will have the service which comes of a sound mind and a joyous heart; and nothing more impedes and impairs soundness of mind and joyousness of heart than petty scruples.

EDWARD M. GOULBURN

Be content to go on quietly. When you discover somewhat in yourself which is earthly and imperfect, be patient while you strive to cast it out. Your perceptions will grow,--at first God will show you very obvious stumbling-blocks;--be diligent in clearing these away, and do not aim at heights to which you are not yet equal. Leave all to God, and while you earnestly desire that He would purify your intention, and seek to work with Him to that end, be satisfied with the gradual progress He sets before you; and remember that He often works in ways unseen by us.
