

Let God Have His Way

by Mary Wilder Tileston

---

When we let God have His way, we experience rest of heart, gayety of spirit, and walk in perpetual victory.

Scripture: Psalm 105:8, Luke 12:32, Romans 8:28, 1 Corinthians 15:57, Philippians 4:6

Topics: "Gods Sovereignty", "Trusting God"

Description

Mary Wilder Tileston preaches about the importance of trusting in God's will and finding joy and tranquility in surrendering to His ways. By aligning our will with God's will, we can experience a perpetual kingdom of peace and victory, regardless of the circumstances we face. This trust in God's sovereignty leads to a life of thanksgiving, rest of heart, and a spirit of unspeakable joy, knowing that He always causes us to triumph in Christ.

Transcript

Glory ye in His holy name; let the heart of them rejoice that seek the Lord.

PSALMS 105:8

Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

LUKE 12:82

I KNOW not what it is to doubt,

My heart is ever gay;

I run no risk, for come what will,

Thou always hast Thy way.

FREDERICK WM. FABER

This way of seeing our Father in everything makes life one long thanksgiving and gives a rest of heart, and, more than that, a gayety of spirit, that is unspeakable. Some one says, "God's will on earth is always joy, always tranquillity." And since He must have His own way concerning His children, into what wonderful green pastures of inward rest, and beside what blessedly still waters of inward refreshment is the soul led that learns this secret. If the will of God is our will, and if He always has His way, then we always have our way also, and we reign in a perpetual kingdom. He who sides with God cannot fail to win in every encounter; and, whether the result shall be joy or sorrow, failure or success, death or life, we may, under all circumstances, join in the Apostle's shout of victory, "Thanks be unto God which always causeth us to triumph in Christ!"
