

Living in God's Presence

by Mary Wilder Tileston

The sermon emphasizes the importance of consciously living in God's presence to experience transformation and spiritual growth.

Scripture: Psalm 91:1, Psalm 112:3, 2 Corinthians 9:15, James 4:8, 1 John 3:2

Topics: "Gods Presence", "Spiritual Growth"

Description

Mary Wilder Tileston preaches about the significance of dwelling in the secret place of the Most High and abiding under the shadow of the Almighty, emphasizing the need to be in God's presence continually. Charles Wesley's hymn expresses the surrender of one's soul and all powers to God, dedicating every moment to Him. William R. Huntington encourages seeking God's guidance and following His convictions faithfully, leading to a deep realization of His love and a sense of duty. Charles H. Brent highlights the importance of consciously being with God to become more like Him by seeking His face and presence.

Transcript

He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

PSALMS 91:1

The upright shall dwell in Thy presence.

PSALMS 111:13

My soul and all its powers

Thine, wholly Thine shall be;

All, all my happy hours

I consecrate to Thee:

Me to Thine image now restore,

And I shall praise Thee evermore.

CHARLES WESLEY

IF the wish is wakened in our soul to be ever in His presence, let us go to Him this moment, and ask Him what to do, and how to feel, believing that He is more ready to hear than we to pray. He will give us realization of His love, and convictions of duty. Let us follow those convictions implicitly; let us ask Him every day to teach us more, and help us more; and we shall soon say, with Paul, "Thanks be unto God, for His unspeakable gift!"

WILLIAM R. HUNTINGTON

The all-important thing is not to live apart from God, but as far as possible to be consciously with Him. It must needs be that those who look much into His face will become like Him.

CHARLES H. BRENT
