Description

Mary Wilder Tileston preaches about the all-encompassing presence of God in our lives, emphasizing that in Christ, we continually grow and rejoice in our journey with Him. This inward change brings a new perspective, making everything transparent with the light of God's love. The realization that the universe is full of God and His love leads to a profound sense of belonging and joy in His presence.

Transcript

Behold, the heaven and the heaven of heavens is the Lord's thy God, the earth also with all that therein is.

DEUTERONOMY 10:14

FATHER, there is no change to live with Thee,

Save that in Christ I grow from day to day;

In each new word I hear, each thing I see,

I but rejoicing hasten on my way.

JONES VERY

THE immediate result of the coming of these good tidings of great joy to me was no outward change in anything, but an inward change of everything, making everything translucent with the light within and beyond. The sum of it all was always that the universe is full of God, and God is love. We are His, and all things are His; therefore in Him all things are ours. In the home, in society, in nature, our beloved moors and woods, and rivers and glens and seas, there was the touch, the breath of God's living, real presence.

ELIZABETH RUNDLE CHARLES

He is so infinitely blessed, that every perception of His blissful presence imparts a vital gladness to the heart. Every degree of approach to Him is, in the same proportion, a degree of happiness. And I often think that were He always present to our mind, as we are present to Him, there would be no pain, nor sense of misery.
