

No Matter the Circumstances

by Mary Wilder Tileston

Mary Wilder Tileston's sermon emphasizes the importance of trusting God's love and guidance through life's challenges, regardless of circumstances.

Scripture: Psalm 139:12, Proverbs 3:5, Isaiah 41:10, Isaiah 45:3, John 14:26

Topics: "Faith And Trust", "Gods Sovereignty"

Description

Mary Wilder Tileston preaches about trusting in God's love and faithfulness, even in the midst of darkness and sorrow, emphasizing the assurance that God can bring light out of darkness and make things right. She encourages believers to have faith that God, who knows their needs and circumstances, will guide them through any difficulties they face. Tileston reminds listeners that as faith increases, it will sustain them through sorrows and challenges, offering the presence of the Holy Counselor in times of need.

Transcript

I will give thee the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the Lord, which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel.

--ISAIAH 45:3

GOD! Thou art Love! I build my faith on that! I know Thee, Thou hast kept my path and made Light for me in the darkness--tempering sorrow,

So that it reached me like a solemn joy:

It were too strange that I should doubt Thy love.

--ROBERT BROWNING

IF I believe in God, in a Being who made me, and fashioned me, and knows my wants and capacities and necessities, because He gave them to me, and who is perfectly good and loving, righteous, and perfectly wise and powerful,--whatever my circumstances in.ward or outward may be, however thick the darkness which encompasses me, I yet can trust, yea, be assured, that all will be well, that He can draw light out of darkness, and make crooked things straight.

--THOMAS ERSKINE

Though sorrows, heaviness, and faintings of heart ever so much increase; yet, if thy faith increase also, it will bear thee up in the midst of them. I would fain have it go well with thee, and that thou mightest not want the holy Counsellor and Adviser, in any strait or difficulty which the wise and tender God orders to befall thee.

--ISAAC PENINGTON
