

The Helper

by Mary Wilder Tileston

God's kindness and covenant of peace are unshakeable, and He invites us to trust in His power and loving nature.

Scripture: 1 Kings 8:56, Psalm 62:8, Proverbs 3:5, Isaiah 40:31, Isaiah 54:10

Topics: "Divine Providence", "Gods Mercy"

Description

Mary Wilder Tileston preaches about the unwavering kindness and peace of the Lord, emphasizing that His promises never fail and His mercy endures forever. She highlights the divine purpose instilled in each person by their Creator, empowering them to overcome any challenges they may face. Tileston encourages believers to find hope and rest in the omnipotent Helper, who is loving, willing, and wise, guiding them through all circumstances with patience and trust in God's providence.

Transcript

The mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the Lord that hath mercy on thee.

--ISAIAH 54:10

There hath not failed one word of all His good promise.

--1 KINGS 8:56

THERE is a persuasion in the soul of man that he is here for cause, that he was put down in this place by the Creator to do the work for which He inspires him, that thus he is an overmatch for all antagonists that could combine against him.

--RALPH WALDO EMERSON

It is impossible for that man to despair who remembers that his Helper is omnipotent; and can do whatsoever He please. Let us rest there awhile,--He can, if He please: and He is infinitely loving, willing enough; and He is infinitely wise, choosing better for us than we can do for ourselves. God invites and cherishes the hopes of men by all the variety of His providence. He that believes does not make haste, but waits patiently, till the times of refreshment come, and dares trust God for the morrow, and is no more solicitous for the next year than he is for that which is past.
