

What We Can Bear

by Mary Wilder Tileston

Learn to rejoice in God continually, trusting in His guidance, provision, and eternal plan for your life.

Scripture: Psalm 119:54, Proverbs 16:9, Philippians 4:19, 1 Thessalonians 5:16

Topics: "Trusting God", "Spiritual Joy"

Description

Mary Wilder Tileston preaches about finding joy and contentment in God, trusting Him to provide for all our needs according to His riches in glory. She emphasizes the importance of surrendering our burdens to God, knowing that He has a purpose for everything He provides, whether little or much, for our ultimate good. Tileston encourages believers to rejoice continually in God, recognizing His love and care in orchestrating circumstances to make us partakers of His goodness and bring us closer to Him.

Thy statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage.

PSALMS 119:54

My God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

PHILIPPIANS 4:19

HOW must the pilgrim's load be borne?

With staggering limbs and look forlorn?

His Guide chose all that load within;

There's need of everything but sin.

So, trusting Him whose love He knows,

Singing along the road he goes;

And nightly of his burden makes

A pillow, till the morning breaks.

LUCY LARCOM

THEY live contented with what they have, whether it be little or much, because they know that they receive as much as is profitable for them; little, if little be profitable, and much, if much be profitable for them, but the Lord only can, who has an eternal end in view in all things which He provides.

EMANUEL SWEDENBORG

I hope you will learn, what I am always hoping to learn, to rejoice in God continually, knowing that He is really ordering all your circumstances to the one end of making you a partaker of His own good-ness, and bringing you within His own sympathy.
