Transcript

Wood, hay, and stubble will burn on that day. That means you can host crusades, plant 10,000 churches, run 20,000 people per Sunday, and it could all burn. The end does not justify the means, guys.

Compromise in the name of souls is a joke. God doesn't need our compromise to touch the world. He needs dead people.

Because dead wood burns and living wood smokes, and we've had enough smoke. We need fire.
