

Total Truth

by Norman Grubb

Norman Grubb emphasizes the importance of recognizing Jesus as our constant source of spiritual nourishment to combat feelings of dryness and distance from God.

Scripture: John 6:35

Topics: "Holy Spirit", "Spiritual Nourishment"

Description

Norman Grubb emphasizes the importance of recognizing the indwelling Spirit of God within us, likening it to a permanent well of water and nourishment that sustains our souls. He highlights the need to spiritually feed on Jesus, the Bread of Life, through faith and recognition, ensuring a continuous freshness and vitality in our spiritual lives. Grubb rejects the notion of feeling spiritually dry or hungry when God resides within us, except in cases of unconfessed sin that need to be addressed.

Transcript

I never let the devil tell me I am dry. How can I be dry in soul when I keep a permanent well of water inside--the Spirit springing up unto everlasting life? I never let the devil tell me I'm hungry and need spiritual nourishment. I have permanent loaves and permanent water inside me --the Bread of Life and the Water of Life. Jesus! And all that I have to do is to eat and drink spiritually. You eat and drink spiritually by recognition. That's all. The recognition of faith is the eating and drinking spiritually. I just recognize Jesus and there I am, of course, fresh in a second! I will talk about that a little later on, but I never allow these things. It is an insult to God when He is living in me that I could moan and groan that I am cold, dry

Not for a second, unless there is sin! If there is sin we'll have to deal with that.
