

Beautiful Feet

by Paul Hattaway

Paul Hattaway's sermon 'Beautiful Feet' emphasizes the transformative power of Christ's sacrifice and the call to share the gospel with others.

Scripture: John 19:34, Romans 5:8, Ephesians 1:7, 1 John 1:7, Revelation 7:14

Topics: "The Cross", "Redemption"

Description

This sermon reflects on the profound sacrifice and redemption found in Christ's crucifixion, emphasizing the transformative power of His blood to purify and wash away sin. It invites listeners to kneel before the cross, be cleansed in the fountain of grace, and experience restoration and justification through Jesus' sacrifice. The message celebrates the beauty and scandal of that fateful night when salvation was secured for all who believe.

Transcript

Up to the mountain of mercy, to the crimson perpetual tide, Kneel down on the shore, be thirsty no more, go under and be purified. Follow Christ to the holy mountain, sinners are erect by the fall, And cleanse your heart and soul in the fountain that flows, for you and for me and for all. At the wonderful, tragic, mysterious tree, on a beautiful, scandalous night, you and me, Were atoned by His blood and forever washed white, on a beautiful, scandalous night.

On the hillside you will be delivered, at the foot of the cross justified, And your spirit restored by the river that pours, for my blessed Savior's side. At the wonderful, tragic, mysterious tree, on a beautiful, scandalous night, you and me, Were atoned by His blood and forever washed white, on a beautiful, scandalous night. At the wonderful, tragic, mysterious tree, on a beautiful, scandalous night, you and me, Were atoned by His blood and forever washed white, on a beautiful, scandalous night.

Oh, it was a beautiful, scandalous night. Love.
