Description

This sermon focuses on the unreached peoples of China, particularly the minorities in Southwest China, who have not heard the name of Jesus due to language and cultural barriers. It highlights the importance of reaching out to these scattered sheep, echoing Jesus' desire to bring all into His fold.

Transcript

Scattered Sheep The Minorities of Southwest China. China is a land of incredible beauty. A vast nation encompassing one-fifth of the world's population.

Although the church is growing rapidly in some parts of China, there are hundreds of millions of Chinese who have never even heard the name of Jesus. Many of these are separated from Christians by significant language and cultural barriers. These are the unreached peoples of China.

Jesus, the Great Shepherd, spoke of other sheep he desired to bring to his fold. Come along, as we join him in an exciting search for his scattered sheep among the minorities of Southwest China.
