

When Did You Last Weep In Prayer Over The Lost

by Peter Brandon

This sermon emphasizes the importance of heartfelt prayer, the need for a revival of God's presence in local churches through the Holy Spirit, and the demonstration of God's power. It challenges believers to examine their willingness to surrender to God and participate in New Testament evangelism by actively sharing the Gospel. The speaker shares a powerful testimony of two young men who led many to salvation through personal evangelism.

Scripture: James 5:16, Acts 2:4, 1 Corinthians 2:4, Matthew 28:19, Romans 10:14

Topics: "Heartfelt Prayer", "New Testament Evangelism"

Transcript

When did you last weep in prayer as you prayed over the lot? Have you got a frozen heart? We need in our local churches the presence of God restored, the presidency of the Holy Ghost manifested, and then the power of God demonstrated. Are we willing? And then lastly, we need New Testament evangelism where we all go out. As I was sharing with them yesterday, two young men in a university laid themselves on the altar, and when I got there, there were 40 to 50 wonderfully saved.

Not by great meetings, one leading another to Christ.
