

A New Gospel with No Repentance (Clip)

by Randy Krahn

This sermon emphasizes the importance of true prophetic voices that call people to repentance and turning away from sin. It questions the current state of preaching that focuses solely on God's love without addressing the need for repentance and obedience. The message challenges believers to seek out and support preachers who deliver the full counsel of God, warning of the consequences of continuing in wickedness.

Duration: 0:45

Scripture: Jeremiah 23:22, 1 Thessalonians 5:3, Jeremiah 23:18, 2 Timothy 4:2

Topics: "Repentance", "The Role of Prophetic Voices"

When the gospel changes, the spirit changes. There's a people today who rise up and they prophesy. This is in Jeremiah 23.

I was reading that further down. I would talk with that on Thursday. And they say peace and safety.

And they never turn anyone back from their wickedness. He says if my people had stood in my counsel these prophets and had heard my words, they would have caused people to turn from their sin. Where are the prophets of today? Where are the preachers who are preaching the full counsel of God, not just telling people how much God loves them, but telling them that they're going to be in trouble with a good God if they don't repent and turn from their wickedness.
