

Called to be Christians Not Cowards

by Randy Krahn

This sermon emphasizes the importance of preaching not just the word, but the power of God, specifically focusing on the resurrection of Christ. It encourages believers to showcase their transformation from their old selves into glorious beings, standing out as Christians and not conforming to the ways of the world.

Scripture: Romans 1:16, 1 Corinthians 1:18, 2 Corinthians 5:17, Philippians 2:15, 1 John 2:15

Topics: "Resurrection Power", "Transformation in Christ"

Description

This sermon emphasizes the importance of preaching not just the word, but the power of God, specifically focusing on the resurrection of Christ. It encourages believers to showcase their transformation from their old selves into glorious beings, standing out as Christians and not conforming to the ways of the world.

Transcript

See, we don't want to preach just the word, but we want to preach the power of God. We want to preach the resurrection of Christ, so that people will see that we are Christians, not cowards. People will see that we've been transformed from worms, the way we used to be, into glorious butterflies, and beautiful, being made beautiful in the sight, not chameleons, fitting in with the ungodly, loving money, loving the world, and all the things that are in it.

May the Lord help us.
