

Giving God the Carnal Things

by Randy Krahn

This sermon emphasizes the importance of surrendering both precious and carnal, earthly things to the Lord in order to become useful to Him. It highlights the need for the Lord to have full reign in our lives, cleansing us and sanctifying us so that we may become vessels unto honor, fully sanctified and fit for His use, ultimately becoming His own special treasure and beautiful people.

Scripture: 2 Timothy 2:21, Romans 12:1, 1 Corinthians 3:12, 1 Peter 2:9

Topics: "Surrender", "Becoming Vessels for God"

Transcript

Precious things, but also carnal, earthly things. And if you wanna become useful to the Lord, as Alin had already shared, we need the Lord to have full reign in this house, in this temple, to give him lordship over those carnal things that he might cleanse us, that we might surrender them to him. Even those good things that our brother Alin shared of the wood, of the hay, of the clay, the earthenware, the common things, that we might become a vessel unto honor, fully sanctified, and useful, fit for use, so that we can become his own special treasure, his own beautiful people.
