

Gods Will For Your Sanctification (Clip)

by Randy Krahn

This sermon emphasizes the importance of prioritizing obedience to God's word over familial relationships, highlighting that those who hear and obey God's word are considered family by Jesus. The focus is on doing the will of God, which is our sanctification, involving abstaining from sinful desires that war against us and striving to be set apart for God in spirit, soul, and body.

Transcript

His disciples were there and they said, hey, your mother and brother is here to see you. Oh, you would think he'd say, oh, hang on guys, I'll be back in five minutes. Let me just talk to my family here.

He said, man, who is my mother and who is my sister and who is my brother? But those who hear God's word and obey it. These are my mother and sister and brother. Those who hear God's word and keep it.

Who do the will of God. What is the will of God? Your sanctification. That's what it says.

Your sanctification. It says in one Thessalonians in chapter five, that we should abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against our members. Also sexual immorality and all these other kinds of lusts that we would be sanctified.

It says at the end of one Thessalonians five, spirit, soul and body. There's a process in which.
