

We Are Not Debtors To The Flesh

by Randy Krahn

This sermon emphasizes that as believers, we are not bound to the flesh but are called to live by the Spirit. It explores the analogy of debt to the flesh, highlighting the burden and desire for freedom. By relying on the Spirit and putting to death the deeds of the flesh through repentance, we can experience true life. The message encourages listeners to be led by the Spirit of God, leading to a life of freedom and salvation through quieting our souls and trusting in Him.

Scripture: Romans 8:12, Galatians 5:16, Romans 8:13, Romans 8:14, Isaiah 30:15, Psalm 62:5, Galatians 5:18, Romans 8:6, Galatians 5:25

Topics: "Living by the Spirit", "Freedom from the Flesh"

Transcript

We're not debtors to the flesh to live according to the flesh. You ever been in debt? Doesn't feel good You're always feeling this yoke on your back. We want to get free from this thing It says we're not debtors to the flesh to live according to the flesh If we live according to the flesh, we will die But if by the spirit with the spirit's help we call on the name of the lord We put to death the deeds of the flesh will live as many as are led by the spirit of god brothers sisters These are the sons of god And the spirit of god is leading us to deal with the flesh This is through repentance and rest is our salvation.

This is quieting our souls and trust
