

Have You Left Your First Love■

by Robby Gallaty

This sermon reflects on the initial fervor and passion experienced when first getting saved, prompting listeners to recall their spiritual markers and defining moments in their Christian journey. It challenges individuals to assess if their love for Jesus has waned over time and to identify any obstacles hindering their wholehearted devotion.

Scripture: Revelation 2:4, Philippians 3:13, Deuteronomy 6:5, Mark 12:30, Hebrews 12:1

Topics: "Spiritual Passion", "Overcoming Obstacles to Devotion"

Description

This sermon reflects on the initial fervor and passion experienced when first getting saved, prompting listeners to recall their spiritual markers and defining moments in their Christian journey. It challenges individuals to assess if their love for Jesus has waned over time and to identify any obstacles hindering their wholehearted devotion.

Transcript

The first one is this, remember when you first got saved. I want you to think about these. Remember when you first got saved.

Do you remember the passion you had, the discipline, the fervor for the things of God? Here's the question. How long has it been since you felt like that? Number two. I want you to think about spiritual markers in your Christian life.

These are times you look back and say, man, that was a defining moment. It was a camp experience. It was VBS.

It was a service. It was a baptism. I want you to think of those.

Did you have a greater passion for God back then than you do now? Number three. Are you loving Jesus with all of your heart, your mind, your soul, and your strength? And if not, why not? And then ask the question, what is in the way of that?
