Transcript

The first one is what? Verse 11, and rejoice with trembling. Rejoice with trembling. Literally, the word rejoice there means spin around or go in a circle.

So I'm going to embarrass myself for you all, but this is what this looks like, okay? Do you all act like this to God? You go, oh, yes, the Lord. Anybody ever done that? Have you all seen the sound of music? Isn't it in the fields where they're all just sort of dancing like that? That's literally what the Hebrew word means. It means you spin in a circle before God.

You're just reveling in him. You're loving him from all angles, spinning and spinning, rejoicing before him. Isn't that beautiful?
