

Seeking God In The Private Closet of Prayer

by Sam Caldwell

This sermon emphasizes the importance of finding a private space, like a closet, to have intentional and deliberate time with God. It highlights the courage it takes for a Christian to shut out distractions and spend quality time in prayer and communion with God, above all other acts of service or activism.

Scripture: Matthew 6:6, James 4:8, Psalm 91:1, Mark 1:35, 1 Thessalonians 5:17

Topics: "Intimacy with God", "The Power of Prayer"

Transcript

Bring us a very clear and a very easy recipe, but it's so deliberate you have to actually do it What is a closet? It's the inner room in one's house and You can figure out whatever that is It's the inner room and it's a it's a room that has a door, isn't it? Right? Go into your closet and when you have shut the door, so somehow you got to be able to shut the door This is the most courageous thing that any Christian can do And you all can challenge me on that You can say no It's more courageous to do this good work or to do go to the abortion clinic or to do this good work or to stand Up for these rights or to stand up for these rights. No, this is the most courageous thing that any Christian could do You find a private room and you close the door and you
