

Willing To Be A Stepping Stone In God's Work

by Sam Caldwell

This sermon focuses on the transformative power of encountering God's presence, leading to humility and a willingness to serve without seeking recognition or status in the kingdom of God. It highlights the desire to see God's presence manifest in the land and the profound experience of being carried into the presence of God during prayer.

Scripture: Isaiah 57:15, James 4:10, Psalm 16:11, Exodus 33:14, Philippians 2:3

Topics: "Transformative Encounter with God", "Humility in Service"

Transcript

So when he met with God's presence, what did it do to him? It humbled him. And he said, I'm willing to do anything. I'm willing to be just a little stepping stone, not even a minister, not someone big in God's kingdom.

I'll do anything to see God's presence come to this land again. February 28, 1807, Payson writes, was favored with great enlargement in prayer. Seemed to be carried out of myself into the presence of God.

Do you all see that? The presence of God is coming to him more and more.
