

(Worship) Praise Jesus for Glorious Hope in the Land

by Sam Caldwell

This sermon is a heartfelt declaration of the worthiness of Jesus Christ, acknowledging Him as the Lamb of God and various titles such as Rose of Sharon, King of Kings, and Prince of Peace. The speaker expresses a desire for Jesus to rise in their hearts, transforming them to be meek, humble, and strong in Him. There is a call for the Son of Righteousness to bring healing and for the people to continue praising and crying out to the Lord, anticipating His return to heal the land.

Scripture: Revelation 5:12, 1 Timothy 6:15, Isaiah 9:6, Revelation 22:16, Malachi 4:2, Psalm 42:1, Revelation 22:20

Topics: "Worship", "Transformation through Christ"

Transcript

You are worthy, O Jesus Christ, my Lord. You are worthy of it all. Lamb of God, slain from the foundations of the earth.

O Lord, Rose of Sharon, Lily of the Valley, My King of Kings and Lord of Lords, My God of Gods, My Prince of Peace, O Lord of Glory, I worship you. O bright and morning star, rise higher, Lord, rise in our hearts. Make us children, make us meek, make us humble, make us weak, make us strong in you, Lord.

Yet all the glory, morning star, rise higher and higher in us. Rise, Son of Righteousness, over this land. Do not let us up, Lord, we must go for it, we must go for you, Lord.

My soul followeth hard after thee, O Lord God. Son of Righteousness, rise with healing in your wings. Amen, amen, forevermore.

Lord, keep your people singing. Lord, keep us praising, Lord. Lord, keep us crying out to you.

Come, Lord Jesus, come heal this land, Lord. Come, Lord Jesus, come.
