Transcript

We experience the visitation of God. There's a it's a it's a time of great rejoicing it is a time to really bow down low before God and Really rejoice that the creator of the universe has decided to visit with us It's something that we must rejoice over if we feel that God has visited with us at any time We must worship and say God. Thank you But It is also an awesome thing Something that requires great reverence Because this God who's drawing close is a holy God and we must treat with reverence this intimacy That this holy God wants to have with us
