Transcript

Seek things above. Yeah, if I get something here, that's fine. I'll work a little harder, but my eye is there.

That's the difference, children. So what does that mean? Throughout the day, when you're sitting in class, or you're doing homeschool at home, or you're playing a game with your friends, constantly remind yourself, hey, okay, they scored a goal, or it looks like I might be losing, or something else happened, I'm a little sick today, that's okay. I don't want to lose sight of my vision.

I'm on this track now. Everything I'm ultimately interested in is a little bit here, that's okay, but at the end of the day, I'm interested in something heavenly. That's how you know that you've been moved from the old track to the good track.
