

God Has to Break A Man Before He Can Fill Him

by Shane Idleman

This sermon emphasizes the importance of humility before God, showcasing a powerful story of a man who chose to humble himself rather than live in pride. It highlights the concept of God filling broken and humble vessels, and the need for individuals to seek God's cleansing and filling in their lives rather than relying on their own opinions.

Scripture: James 4:10, 2 Chronicles 7:14, Psalm 51:10, Philippians 2:3

Topics: "Humility", "Divine Restoration"

Transcript

Here's a tambourine. Would you walk with us down the street praising our lord and at that moment he had to make a decision do I humble myself And stop thinking more highly of myself than I should Or should I continue to live in my pride? He humbled himself and it's an incredible story. He was then called the thunder of the pulpit God see see god god flows in and fills broken vessels Humble vessels that say lord.

I need you I meditate on this sermon so much this week lord. I need you. I don't want to just go there and give my opinion I want to hear from god.

It's been said that god has to break a man and cleanse a man before he can fill a man
