We are a culture in desperate need of God. The only way to turn that around is the prayer closet. The only way you will make an impact is a prayer closet.

The only thing you should be concerned about right now is your personal relationship with Jesus Christ and seeking God with all your heart. You don't need to know if Syria's got chemical weapons every single day. You don't know if Iran's nuclear capabilities are on the verge of coming to reality.

You don't need to watch Benjamin Netanyahu from Israel saying every single day, every single day they'll come and it's coming. The end's coming. It came better.

I know the end's coming. I read the book, but I also read that every knee will bow and every tongue will confess that Christ is Lord away. Hold on, hold on.

I also read that I'm not even supposed to have a fear spirit of fear. So why am I feeding fear all the time? If I'm not even supposed to have a spirit of fear, why am I watching this and being paralyzed when I'm supposed to be productive? See all these things that just get us to hunt good Christian. We've got to sit back in the corner.

We've got to, you know, the world's falling to pieces. We've got to just stay back here. Have you seen? Have you read? All I've heard is that we're more than conquered.

We're supposed to come out in the prayer closet and say, thus sayeth the Lord and pray and petition, say the enemy has got enough families. He's got enough marriages. He's going to stop now.

Give me Scotland for the Christ. John Knox, give me America for the cause of Christ. It all begins in the prayer closet seeking him.

That's how you move the spiritual bindings of strongholds for that. We wrestle not against flesh and blood for the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God. Help Paul by the pulling down of strongholds.

Help Paul by praying and petitioning and fasting and seeking the heart of God. That's how you bring a prodigal home. That's how you kill your addiction.

That's how you beat depression is seeking the heart of the father.
