by Shane Idleman

This sermon emphasizes the danger of pride and head knowledge without genuine brokenness before God. It highlights the importance of humility and vulnerability in fostering intimacy with God and others, cautioning against the harm that pride can cause in relationships and ministry.

Scripture: Proverbs 16:18, James 4:6, Psalm 51:17, Philippians 2:3

Topics: "Pride vs. Humility", "Intimacy with God"

Description

This sermon emphasizes the danger of pride and head knowledge without genuine brokenness before God. It highlights the importance of humility and vulnerability in fostering intimacy with God and others, cautioning against the harm that pride can cause in relationships and ministry.

Transcript

See, you see I had head knowledge. I could quote famous Puritans. I could break down all these things.

You have a really good memory. People don't like that. So much theology, but no brokenness.

That's why I said straight as a gun barrel, but just as empty. And I thank God I didn't pastor a church then because I would have hurt a lot of people. Pride prevents intimacy folks.

This is the big problem in America.
