

Keep My Commandments And Live

by Steve Gallagher

This sermon emphasizes the importance of guarding and keeping God's commandments in our hearts, treating them as valuable treasures that need protection and careful keeping. By making God's teachings the main focus of our lives, binding them to our very being, and valuing wisdom and understanding as close companions, we are guided away from destructive paths, such as adultery.

Scripture: Proverbs 7:1, Proverbs 4:23, Proverbs 7:4, Proverbs 6:23, Proverbs 2:16

Topics: "Guarding God's Commandments", "Valuing Wisdom and Understanding"

Transcript

which is often used, translated as guard, keep my commandments and live. In other words, guard those commandments in your heart. Just like if you were storing up valuables like gold or silver or something, you would make sure that they were guarded and carefully kept where no one could find them, you know, and protected.

Keep my commandments and live. And my teaching as the apple of your eye or is the main focus of your life really. Bind them on your fingers, write them on the tablet of your heart.

Say to wisdom, you are my sister and call understanding your intimate friend. And here's why, that they may keep you from an adulteress. And that is where we'll
