

Surrendering All To Christ Or Quietly Rejecting

by Steve Gallagher

This sermon delves into the contrasting responses people have when encountering the Lord. Some are deeply moved and willing to surrender everything to Jesus, while others subtly reject His call to go deeper. It explores the internal struggle between wholehearted devotion and holding back from fully committing to God.

Scripture: Matthew 16:24, Luke 9:23, Jeremiah 29:13, Hebrews 4:12, Proverbs 4:23

Topics: "Wholehearted Devotion", "The Struggle of Commitment"

Transcript

Some of you, there are some who you encounter the Lord and you're just so sick of what your life has brought you to. When you see the Lord, He's presented to you clearly. Your heart goes out to Him.

You don't care what the cost is. I must have you, Lord. I don't care what it's going to cost.

I don't care about anything. Please, I must have Jesus. We've seen that happen many times in this place.

But just as often, I hate to say, the rejection. It's not an outright rejection. It isn't like, get out of my life sort of thing.

No, it's a very subtle, quiet decision deep in the heart. I don't really want to go that far.
