

Hush Little Sinner

by Steve Hill

This sermon warns of the dangers of trusting in Satan's promises of wealth and fame, and calls listeners to turn to God for true joy and fulfillment.

Duration: 2:32

Scripture: Matthew 16:26, John 10:10, James 4:7-8, 1 John 2:15-17

Topics: "Satanic Deception", "Eternal Judgment"

Description

This sermon warns against the deceptive promises of Satan, who offers temporary worldly pleasures and distractions to lead people away from God. It emphasizes the importance of not being swayed by material wealth, fame, or false happiness, but to instead focus on the eternal consequences and the judgment to come. The message urges listeners to turn away from the lies of the enemy and choose to follow Jesus, who offers true joy and fulfillment.

Transcript

Hush, little sinner, don't you cry. Satan's gonna bless you before you die. The world I'll lay before your feet.

Don't be concerned for the judgment seat. Hush, little sinner, don't you cry. Satan's gonna tell you the reason why.

I'll give you fortune, wealth, and fame. From this point on, you won't be the same. My plans for you, there's so much to share.

Trust in me, you won't have a care. If all these things can't satisfy, I'll give you more before you die. The preacher man says turn today.

My word to you is live to play. There's so much time, don't be concerned. You've come this far on what you've learned.

Your heart is pounding hard it seems. Don't turn to God, it's all a dream. Rest in my arms, we'll sing a song.

Together we will walk alone. This Jesus is a passing fad. They say he helps if you are sad.

The joy he brings is not like mine. I'll make you happy all the time. Hush, little sinner, don't you cry.

Satan's gonna bless you before you die. The world I'll lay before your feet. Don't be concerned for the judgment seat.
