

Someone Is Praying For Your Deliverance

by Steve Hill

This sermon emphasizes the intercessory prayers of loved ones who are pleading with God for the deliverance and salvation of those who have gone astray or made serious mistakes. It draws parallels to Abraham's plea for the righteous in Sodom, highlighting the heartfelt prayers of grandmothers, grandfathers, parents, and children who are interceding for their loved ones' redemption and protection.

Scripture: Genesis 18:23, 1 Timothy 2:1, James 5:16, Luke 15:7, Romans 8:26, 1 John 5:14, Philipians 1:3, Ephesians 6:18

Topics: "Intercessory Prayer", "Redemption and Salvation"

Transcript

Abraham didn't want to see Sodom destroyed. He didn't want to see the cities destroyed. He didn't want to see the righteous die.

And there's people out there, friend, that are praying for you. There's a grandma out there, brother, that doesn't want to see you die. She doesn't want to see you die in your sins.

She doesn't want to see you go under. And she's pleading to God. She's praying.

Some of you have made serious mistakes in your life. And you're living those mistakes right now. And there's a grandma, there's a grandfather, there's a young child, there's a mommy, there's a daddy somewhere praying.

Just like Abraham was seeking God. There's a grandma somewhere going, God, don't let it happen to my son. Father, get him out of that bar.

Get him out of that drinking establishment, Jesus. Deliver him.
