

God Doesn't Need Help

by Theodore Epp

God is sovereign and does not need our help to fulfill His promises, and we must learn to trust in His timing and sovereignty.

Scripture: 2 Samuel 1:1

Topics: "Trusting God's Sovereignty", "Divine Promises"

Description

Theodore Epp emphasizes that God does not require our assistance in fulfilling His promises, as illustrated by the story of the Amalekite messenger who falsely claimed to have killed Saul. David's response to the messenger highlights his respect for God's anointed and his refusal to take matters into his own hands. Epp warns against the common mistake of trying to help God, reminding us that true greatness and power belong to the Lord alone. The sermon encourages believers to trust in God's sovereignty and timing rather than resorting to human efforts to achieve divine promises.

Transcript

11 Samuel 1:1-16

Second Samuel opens with the account of a messenger coming to David and telling him that Saul and Jonathan and many others were dead.

Thinking to gain David's approval and possibly receive a reward from him, this messenger, who was an Amalekite, told David that it was at his hands Saul had died.

He said he had come upon Saul, who was still alive even after falling on his own sword. Saul had pleaded with him to kill him before the Philistines came upon him and mutilated his body while he was still alive.

The young man claimed he did as Saul requested. Some Bible students believe the young man told the truth; others believe he lied, but whatever the correct version is, he took his story to the wrong man.

David had always had a strong aversion to raising his hand against God's anointed. Neither would he permit any of his own men to do it. So when this young Amalekite claimed to have killed Saul, David had him put to death.

David did not want what the Lord did not give to him. He would not take by force what God had promised.

So many of us make the mistake of feeling we have to help God fulfill His promises.

"Thine, O Lord, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and in the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O Lord, and thou art exalted as head above all" (1 Chron. 29:11).

Source: <https://sermonindex.net/speakers/theodore-epp/god-doesnt-need-help/>

Grow in Your Walk with Christ

Listen and read messages that will stir your heart for Christ and point you to deeper repentance and devotion.

- 50,000+ Sermons from speakers past and present
- 3,900+ Classic Christian Books freely readable online
- 1,200+ Bible Translations and Commentaries
- Over 450k forum posts — Join our vibrant online Christian forum

www.sermonindex.net