

A Never-Fading Glory

by Thomas Brooks

Christ's glory is a never-fading, eternal, and lasting reward for believers.

Scripture: Isaiah 40:6, 1 Peter 5:4

Topics: "Eternal Glory", "Lasting Rewards"

Description

Thomas Brooks emphasizes the eternal and unchanging nature of the glory bestowed by Christ, contrasting it with the fleeting glory of the world. He illustrates that even after countless years in heaven, the glory received from Christ remains vibrant and fresh, unlike earthly accolades that wither away. Brooks encourages believers to seek this everlasting glory, which is as enduring as Christ Himself.

Transcript

"And when the chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory." 1 Peter 5:4

The glory which Christ gives, is a never-fading glory.

When a man has been in heaven as many millions of years as there are stars in heaven--his glory shall be as fresh and as green as it was at his first entrance into heaven! All worldly glory is like the flowers of the field; but the glory which Christ gives, is lasting and durable like Himself.
