

A Wolf Turned Into a Man!

by Thomas Brooks

---

The sermon highlights the incredible transformation that can occur when a worldling is made holy by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Scripture: Luke 19:1

Topics: "Redemption", "Transformation"

---

Description

Thomas Brooks emphasizes the transformative power of the Holy Spirit, illustrating how a worldly person can be radically changed from a 'wolf' into a 'man'--from a sinner into a saint. He uses the example of Zaccheus, who was once consumed by worldly desires, to highlight the miraculous nature of such a transformation. This change is portrayed as a wonder, showcasing God's ability to redeem and sanctify even the most lost individuals.

Transcript

The myth tells of Lycaon being turned into a wolf; but when a worldling is made holy, there is a wolf turned into a man! Yes, a devil is turned into a saint! Therefore the Holy Spirit, speaking of Zaccheus, who had long been bewitched by the world, brings him in with a "Behold!"--as if it were a wonder of wonders that ever such a worldling should be made holy.
